

Waikato Respiratory Virus Report

Week 20 2017

Week to 21 May 2017

Specimen numbers are trending upwards but the virus positive results remain uncommon.

Our specimens are coming mostly from middle aged adults (15 to 55 yo) and infants (under 1 yo). Patients are being tested in a variety of settings, including emergency departments, inpatient wards, intensive care and general practice within the Waikato region.

Waikato Hospital laboratory web site: <http://lab.waikatodhb.health.nz/>

NZ Influenza Surveillance: https://surv.esr.cri.nz/virology/influenza_weekly_update.php