

Waikato Respiratory Virus Report

Week to 7 April 2019

Week 24 2019

Specimen numbers are increasing, similar to this time last year. Respiratory viruses detected remain at summer levels but a small amount of Influenza A is circulating in the Waikato. The small numbers shown in March and April are boosted by 3 pairs of cases and we had a cluster of linked cases in February.

Waikato laboratory web site and virus report archive:

<https://lab.waikatodhb.health.nz/news/>

NZ National Surveillance:

<https://www.esr.cri.nz/our-services/consultancy/flu-surveillance-and-research>