

Waikato Respiratory Virus Report

Week to 12 May 2019

Week 19 2019

We are now in early winter virus season. Influenza A and B are both circulating but account for only a small proportion of patients with respiratory illness. This year there has been an early but gradual buildup, rather than the more explosive arrival usually seen. Respiratory Syncytial Virus season is not yet present.

Waikato laboratory web site and virus report archive:

<https://lab.waikatodhb.health.nz/news/>

NZ National Surveillance:

<https://www.esr.cri.nz/our-services/consultancy/flu-surveillance-and-research>