

Waikato Respiratory Virus Report

Week to 9 June 2019

Week 23 2019

Influenza numbers levelled off last week. Among people tested, about a third have Influenza and a third have one of several other “minor“ respiratory viruses. RSV is building up and we can expect it to be present for several months from now.

Waikato laboratory web site and virus report archive:

<https://lab.waikatodhb.health.nz/news/>

NZ National Surveillance:

<https://www.esr.cri.nz/our-services/consultancy/flu-surveillance-and-research>