

Waikato Respiratory Virus Report

Week to 28 July 2019

Week 30 2019

Both Influenza A and B are declining now, but RSV rates remain high. The pie graphs below show the viruses circulating over the month of July, which has been our peak season this year.

Waikato laboratory web site and virus report archive:

<https://lab.waikatodhb.health.nz/news/>

NZ National Surveillance:

<https://www.esr.cri.nz/our-services/consultancy/flu-surveillance-and-research>

Global surveillance

<https://www.who.int/influenza/resources/charts/en/>